

DISCOVER THE AIRE

Whether you are situated on acreage or suburban land the Aire is the ideal essential affordable entry level Housing Option available. This delightful family home is greener and more efficient than the standard market offering and guaranteed to maintain low running costs. Custom designed with open and spacious kitchen, living and dining areas the home features 3 generous sized bedrooms with Built in robes. The floor plan can be easily modified to suit your individual or family needs and is adapted to the natural elements of your block achieving the best possible orientation afforded. One distinguishing characteristic that defines the Aire is an expansive Australian hardwood timber back deck that almost spans the entirety of the North facing side of the home, offering the owners the perfect outdoor alfresco dining and entertaining area. Appealing to first home buyers or clients with a limited budget alike, facades have been clad in a mix of fibre cement panels and horizontal timber cladding, however minimal variations to façade will create a more dynamic appearance. With the inclusion of distinctive Eco Essence core design features, the Aire is great value for money and will accommodate the occupants changing needs over time.
